STREET SWEEPING.

Superintendent Knight had a force of men sweeping all of the brick-paved streets yesterday, giving them a remarkably neat appearance.

FIRE AT THE DEPOT.

At 11:15 last night an alarm was turned in from box 36 by Officer Locke, on account of fire breaking out in the Norfolk and Western station, on Railroad avenue. The fire was over the restaurant part of the station, and was confined to the offices occupied by Car Inspectors Meadows and Carr. The entire fire department responded to the alarm and soon checked the progress of the flames. The damage was probably less than $100, and the fire was supposed to be due to a defective flue.

"Fotographs," 50 cents per dozen this week only. St. Louis Portrait Co.

CHARGED WITH HOUSE-BURNING.

Yesterday Detective W. G. Baldwin brought to this city Sam Hobson, colored, whom he had arrested on the day before in Pocahontas, on the charge of burning the residence of Emmett Thaxton at Thaxtons, one night in December last. The detectives had been working the case for the last six weeks, and while Sam was suspected, it was only until recently that they were able to fasten the guilt on him. It seems that he had confessed the burning to several parties here in the city, but it was very difficult to get substantial evidence as to his confession. He remained here about a week and left Friday for Pocahontas en route to Ohio. He related the circumstances of the burning to several parties there and Detective Baldwin and Chief of Police Rupert, of Pocahontas, secreted themselves in an adjoining room and overheard his entire confession of the crime to a colored lawyer and some other parties. He was lodged in jail here last night, and will be taken to Bedford to day, where he will be given a preliminary hearing. It seems that Hobson had a grudge against Mr. Thaxton, who had him arrested on the charge of stealing a pistol from him. There is scarcely a doubt but that the detectives have worked up a strong case against the young negro.

GONE TO WINSTON.

Manager Charlie Mitchell, of the Roanoke baseball team, left yesterday for Winston in the interest of the substitute for the old Virginia League, which it is proposed to organize. From Winston he will go to Danville and thence to Lynchburg.

DROPPED DEAD.

John Price, a well-known farmer of Franklin county, died suddenly on the 25th instant from heart disease at Edwardsville, about three miles from his home. He was talking with one of his neighbors and fell forward on his face, dying almost instantly. He was 70 years old, and leaves a wife and three children.

This is the last week we will make "fotographs" at 50 cents per dozen. St. Louis Portrait Co.

THE VERY FLOWER OF THE PIANO INDUSTRY.

There is no question that the distinguished firm of Behr Bros. have established in the most thorough and satisfactory manner their right to be considered as of the very flower of the piano manufacturing industry, both in point of inventive genius and in point of general excellence of the construction of their instruments.—Music Trade Review.

A ROANOKE MAN MARRIED.

John M. Draper, of the firm of Gray & Draper, of this city, was married on the 20th instant to Miss Jennie Hunt, of Glade Hill, Franklin county, at the residence of the bride. Rev. John C. Hall, of the Primitive Baptist Church, being the officiating clergyman. The newly married pair have returned to this city and will reside at 805 Bullitt avenue s. e.

MR. HAMMELSEY ILL.

Luther A. Hammelsey, shipping clerk for J. M. Gambill & Co., is so seriously ill at the residence of his brother, J. W. Hammelsey, on Eighth avenue s. w., that a rope has been placed across that thoroughfare at its junction with Franklin road to stop the passage of vehicles.

WILL PAY OFF TO-DAY.

Col. D. W. Flickwir, receiver of the Roanoke Iron Company, has received a decree from Judge Paul, of the United States court, authorizing him to pay off the employees of that corporation, and to-day will proceed to do so. The amount to be disbursed is about $4,000.

VALUABLE STOCK OF HARDWARE FOR SALE.

Bids are invited on the stock of hardware of the late firm of Evans Bros., of Roanoke, Va., with a view of making a private sale of the same. The stock consists of a full line of heavy and shelf hardware, which on January 1, 1897, inventoried $14,311.15. The stock may be seen and inspected at No. 32 Campbell avenue, Roanoke, Va., and the undersigned will be glad to show the stock of goods and receive bids from parties desiring to purchase.

The terms of sale may be either for cash or on credit, but in case of a sale on credit satisfactory security will be required of the purchaser. In case such an offer is not received by February 15, 1897, as will justify a private sale, the stock will be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the deed of trust from A. J. Evans and wife to E. L. Bell, trustee, dated October 30, 1894.

H. T. HALL, Receiver, Roanoke, Va.
